Before/After & Vacation Care Service Kariong Public School! Premium, Affordable, Inclusive & Onsite

Kariong Before/After and Vacation care operates out of a beautiful prepose built demountable, located within the school grounds, opening up to a spacious oval, undercover cola and fixed equipment area.

A nutritional breakfast and afternoon tea is provided daily during the school term, alongside a freshly made fruit platter.

Our qualified and dedicated Educators provide an engaging educational program which aligns with the national quality standard, utilising the children's voices to plan and prepare activities appropriate to all children's interests, needs and abilities.

Our vision is to create quality education and care environments where children and their families feel supported, respected and where children learn, grow and develop through trust, nurturing relationships, diverse play and quality experiences within our caring community.
